4 Institutional field

4.3 Strong and competent institutions

Are institutions strong and competent at local and national level?

Evaluation

30

Indicators

- Are clear objectives related to strengthening institutional and human capacities elaborated?
- Do adequate resource allocation, training measures, capacity building and institutional development enable the institutions (public and private sector, NGOs, etc.) to take up their responsibilities?
- Are existing functioning structures utilized as much as possible?
- Is external support only used as a subsidiary instrument?
- Are organisational structures (local/national) in place to address risks?
- To what extent do these organisational structures have the capacity to address risks?
- Are DRR mechanisms in place (e.g. early warning systems, contingency plans)?

Justification

Actions	When	Who