

Final Programme

F2F Event 2016: Urban DRR and Urban Resilience

6th - 8th December 2016

WORKSHOP DAY 1_Tuesday 6th December 2016 - Hotel Freienhof, Thun

Moderated by Babette Pfander, bp_consulting

Time	Topic	Who
09.00 - 09.30	Arrival of participants and welcome coffee/tea
09.30 - 10.15	Welcome and introduction	Nicole Stolz, Caritas CH
	Participants round: introduction and expectations	Babette Pfander, bp_consulting
	Guiding through the programme	Babette Pfander, bp_consulting
Block I: Introduction - Disaster risks in the face of increased urbanization
10.15 - 11.00	DRR and Resilience: Questions, challenges and opportunities for NGOs in urban contexts	John Twigg, ODI
11.00 - 11.15	Coffee/tea
Block II: Analyze - Understanding urban disaster risks
11.15 - 12.00	UN-Habitat work in urban risk reduction and resilience – experiences in sub-Saharan Africa	Mathias Spaliviero, UN-Habitat
12.00 - 12.45	Informal settlements and vulnerability - a railway resettlement story in Mumbai	Joel Bolnick, SDI
12.45 - 13.45	Lunch
13.45 - 15.30	Group work - Introduction to key questions and hypotheses - Understand, verify and reformulate key hypotheses as relevant to our work - Assess applicability of international frameworks and the basic analytical framework for our DRR work	Nicole Stolz, Caritas CH John Twigg, ODI Mathias Spaliviero, UN-Habitat Joel Bolnick, SDI
Block III: Apply - Interventions for Urban DRR
15.30 - 16.00	Coffee/tea
16.00 - 17.30	Global Market Place on urban DRR practices/case studies
	1 st Round
	- Frontline tool and outline proposal 2017	Nicole Stolz, Caritas CH
	- Building City Coalitions towards connectedness for resilience-essential components	Gavin White, IFRC
	- Integrating DRR into a project with a focus on social inclusion – The experience of the Red Cross in Tegucigalpa, Honduras	Anton Joehr, Swiss Red Cross
	- Integrated Flood Management (IFM) in urban areas	Maud Poissonnier, WMO

	2nd Round:
	- Comprehensive needs and risk assessment in a slum in Tongi, Dhaka – DRR challenges and opportunities	Eva Syfrig, Swiss Red Cross
	- The use of Household Economy Analysis (HEA) tool to understand household vulnerability to shocks and stresses in urban context - the case of Niamey	Christophe Belperron, Save the Children
	- The City Resilience Action Planning (CityRAP) Tool - how it works	Mathias Spaliviero, UN-Habitat
	- How to reduce the risk of disasters in the built environment	Alexander Angermaier, Caritas CH
17.30 - 18.00	Wrap-up of the day	Babette Pfander, bp_consulting
19.00	Dinner
WORKSHOP DAY 2_ Wednesday 7th December 2016 - Hotel Freienhof, Thun
Moderated by Babette Pfander, bp_consulting
Time	Topic	Responsible
08.15 - 08.30	Summary learning Day 1 and introduction Day 2	Babette Pfander, bp_consulting
08.30 - 09.30	Short talks of representatives from private sector and Swiss government on DRR in urban areas (SwissRe, SECO, SDC Climate Change, SDC HA (15 minutes each)
	Barisal: making a city ready to live with climate change	Lukas Sundermann, Swiss Re
	Climate resilient and low carbon urban planning in cities in India	Mirjam Macchi, SDC Climate Change
	SECO's Urban DRR Engagement	Alain Geiger, SECO
	Preparedness for Response - from local to international: Examples of SDC's engagement	Simon Tschurr, SDC Humanitarian Aid and SHA
09.30 - 10.30	Discussion on risk-informed development in urban areas and on potential contribution of NGOs and partnerships in urban DRR/urban resilience with Q&A	Speakers of previous sessions
10.30 - 11.00	Coffee/tea
11.00 - 11.15	Swiss NGO DRR Platform member engagement in urban context/urban DRR	Annita Annies, Save the Children
11.15 - 12.30	Learning from Swiss NGO DRR Platform members and partners
	Business Case for DRM in Bosnia/Herzegovina: How infrastructure investments in high-economic areas can spur economic growth and greater public-private dialogue	Andrew Wilson, Helvetas Marina Filipović, NERDA
	Urban Resilience Building among children and mothers in slum communities in 4 cities in India (Delhi, Mumbai, Kolkata and Patna)	Ray Kancharla, Save the Children India

	Scaling up traditional DRR interventions in urban settings: How the Red Cross branch in Riohacha, Colombia, redefined its audience, scope and methodology	Gavin White, IFRC
12.30- 13.30	Lunch
Block IV: Advocate - The space and strategy for NGOs in working on urban DRR towards resilience
13.30 - 15.00	Group dialogue and collection of common insights as synthesis of workshop
15.00 - 16.30	Walking tour in Thun to experience urban DRR in the past and present of a small Swiss town	Markus Zimmermann, NDR consulting
16.30 - 16.45	Coffee/tea
16.45 - 18.15	Group presentations Presentations of workshop findings and key messages Round up of workshop	Nicole Stolz, Caritas CH Toni Joehr, Swiss Red Cross Annita Annies, Save the Children Renate Fleiner, Caritas CH
19.00	Dinner
PUBLIC DAY_Thursday 8th December 2016 - Hotel Kreuz, Bern Moderated by Marcus Oxley, GNDR
Time	Topic	Responsible
09.00 - 09.30	Arrival of participants and welcome coffee/tea
09.30 - 10.00	Report back from F2F workshop and key messages	Nicole Stolz, Caritas CH
10.00 - 10.45	Keynote speech on 'Towards a urban resilience agenda - The Sendai Framework and The New Urban Agenda'	Robert Glasser, UNISDR
10.45 - 12.15	Panel discussion on 'How to achieve inclusive urban resilience' with Q&A	Panel members: Alain Geiger, SECO Arno Wicki, SDC HA Christophe Belperron, Save the Children Joel Bolnick, SDI John Twigg, ODI Mathias Spaliviero, UN-Habitat
12.15 - 14.00	Lunch-Apéro	