

Virtual annual workshop 2021

The role of disaster risk reduction in the humanitarian-development nexus

AGENDA

OBJECTIVES

During the meeting, we will:

- Increase understanding of the need for, potentials and challenges of the humanitarian-development nexus, emphasizing the implications for programming and collaboration in different risk contexts.
- Discuss concrete approaches and instruments that aim for more effective risk reduction, preparedness and response, bridging the humanitarian-development-divide
- Analyse how DRR and the humanitarian-development nexus are complementary and mutually beneficial, both in our operations and institutionally, in order to increase efficient use of scarce resources and effectiveness to counter the urgent problems in a sustainable and risk-sensitive way
